

Fast, Easy, Convenient Security Clearance Checks

Fingerprinting for Government & Defense Operations

Security clearance fingerprinting is time-consuming and complex, and your Facility Security Officers and other trusted individuals have other work to do. Sterling Identity provides a comprehensive fingerprinting process that allows your team to focus on what matters.

Sterling Identity also offers business employment screening, financial services clearances for investigatory agencies, and identity and access biometrics services for government groups large and small.

civilians require new government security clearances every year

Spend less time on clearance fingerprinting and more time on real security.

Nationwide SWFT-Approved Network

Every one of our nationwide locations features state-of-the-art, Secure Web Fingerprint Transmission (SWFT) approved Sterling Identity Network Kiosks ready to receive your security clearance fingerprinting candidates.

You can select a convenient location for your candidates, or they can pick their nearest location themselves at sterlingidentity.com/locations.

Trouble-Free, Professional, and Convenient

Sterling Identity provides a trouble-free and professional live scan fingerprint network so you can:

- Send applicants to convenient, SWFT-approved live scan locations
- Collect fingerprints through a system protected by military-grade security
- Let our partner, Inquiries Screening, submit fingerprints to U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) for you!
